IMPORTANT NOTICE TO ALL CONSIGNORS TO THE SALE

As reported elsewhere in this issue of P-W, Tom Reynolds was robbed of his entire inventory on the night of April 25. In addition to his coins, he lost all of his reference material, and all documentation related to the recently-completed EAC Sale.

Every consignor received a 5 x 8 inch sheet from Tom, acknowledging the consignment, and listing each lot belonging to that consignor. Tom needs to have a copy of that sheet from each and every consignor, or at a very minimum, a note indicating the first lot number belonging to each consignor, in order to be able to reconstruct how much is owed to whom in the aftermath of the Sale.

Second, due to the additional time involved to accomplish this task, consignors should be advised that their payment will be delayed until June 25.

We obviously regret the inconvenience. But the circumstances surrounding the robbery, many of which must remain confidential at this point, make it quite clear that Tom was fortunate to escape with the loss of only his inventory. I ask you to give him your full support in this time of trial.

--the Editor.

Lots listed at $0 were repurchased by the consignor.
